School of Social and Behavioral Sciences Dept. of Marriage and Family Sciences

Northcentral University's Department of Marriage and Family Sciences provides online master's, doctoral and certificate programs in marriage and family therapy for students who are interested in advancing in or joining this rewarding mental health field. At NCU, we understand that being a marriage and family therapist is more than just a job – it's about helping individuals, couples and families navigate the natural stressors and unexpected challenges of life and come out better and stronger than before.

Northcentral's PhD MFT is the first, and currently only, distance-based doctoral program to receive the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE) coveted programmatic accreditation, ensuring that the University's program aligns with national accreditation standards.

In addition, NCU's Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy degree program is approved by both COAMFTE and the California Board of Behavioral Sciences.

My.NCU.edu

Northcentral's virtual campus, My.NCU.edu, is tailored to our unique one-to-one learning model. It serves as a communications hub, with internal discussion boards, student email accounts and faculty directory. In addition, the virtual campus houses the Course Room and Commons.

Course Room

All academic exchanges take place within the NCU Course Room. It contains course syllabi, assignments, faculty information and the course gradebook. In addition, the new and improved NCU Course Room includes added content delivery features, such as video chats, live lecture capabilities, quizzes, surveys and embedded video.

Commons

This private academic network provides students and faculty the opportunity to build and participate in online communities. Within the Commons, users can share information through live "Facebook-like" activity streams, and curate their academic identity and connections – while keeping these activities separate from their personal social networks.

BENEFITS OF A PARTNERSHIP

Preferred tuition: Organizations that develop an educational alliance with Northcentral University may be able to secure lower preferred tuition rates for their employees.

Professionally relevant programs: NCU's business, education, psychology and marriage and family science programs are designed to enhance students' abilities to solve problems, think critically and reflectively, conduct research, uphold the highest ethical and professional standards, and communicate effectively in today's diverse global environment.

Unparalleled flexibility: NCU's online courses make it possible for students all over the world to pursue an advanced education from a regionally-accredited university without having to step foot in the U.S. or inside a physical classroom.

Courses taught one-to-one by our professors who all have doctoral degrees: In NCU's one-to-one learning model, one student is paired with one expert professor in each course to facilitate learning through inquiry-based interaction and personalized feedback that challenges students to continually reflect on their own learning and application.

Educational alliances customized to your needs: We are open to engaging in further conversations with you to assess your specific needs in order to customize your organization's educational alliance opportunity.

GLOBAL REACH

Northcentral University students are working toward achieving their educational and professional goals in nearly 50 countries around the world. As an international community of scholars, we are able to meet a global need for quality online education by eliminating geographic boundaries with a shared passion for graduate education.
